

The Swedish Institute provides scholarships in Sweden to highly-qualified international students from developing countries who want to study at Sweden Universities. Scholarships are intended for studies in Sweden starting in the fall semester 2012 (August) and focus mainly on master's level. A few scholarships will be awarded for studies at bachelor's level

Read more...