

The Global Campus 21 E-Academy enables professional expertise, managerial skills and leadership experience to be gained, extended and passed on in developing countries by means of new learning media. Participants from all over the world use our online courses and learning space to learn together, share their experiences and collaborate on projects.

Read more...